

CLACKAMAS COUNTY HERITAGE COUNCIL

2021 MEMBERSHIP FORM

WHO WE ARE

A Coalition for Heritage

The Clackamas County Heritage Council is a coalition of countywide heritage sites, organizations, advocates and purveyors, striving to work together for the betterment of our collective heritage resources.

The group is comprised of representatives and advocates from museums, heritage sites, historic cemeteries, historic review boards, agencies and organizations within Clackamas County.

Strength in Numbers

We initially came together to search for a stable source of funding for heritage sites. We are still working on it!

But in the interim, we discovered there is benefit to networking with others who share a passion for the region's history and find themselves facing the same challenges. And, there is strength in numbers.

Members

Members range from large sites with paid staff to small associations with a handful of devoted members. Some are non-profit organizations while others are county and city agencies with a vested interest in local heritage.

Heritage-related businesses, privately owned sites and dedicated individual advocates of history, heritage and genealogy are also members.

Members of historic review boards/landmark commissions and historic cemetery associations within the county are invited to participate and are equally important to the collective protection of our past.

By sharing in this information network and working together for the well-being of all, we can be better prepared and organized to react, assist and support preservation issues countywide.
